

Cris Jr. Tetzintla
email:
Noyolo.love@gmail.com
m phone:
832-368-2221

Rob Arnold, 313-855-8256,
robert.arnold@alumni
.duke.edu

Alex Howard 979-743-1601
ahoward@unitedwayh ouston.org

-What issue area most resonates for you and for your community work?
What is a possible collective action for the group to work on

Team Members: Tennile, Rachel, Alex Saadi, Kevian, Rob Arnold, Milton, Alex H., Danielle, Fernell, & Denise

- resources, marketing, identify people who have small businesses, What's sold & unpromoted, more active in community, expand SB.

-What are ideas for how you can learn more about the issue deepen your leadership, and engage/learn from your community in this issue area?

Identify the data as it pertains to small business in disenfranchised communities and then do a rotating session on the foundation of a small business and process.

Access to business funding

Grow business

identify a specific zip code as a pilot

Nini Gutierrez
8325288093
ngutierrez1@bakerriley.org

small buss. workshop

partner with certified small business consultants

where to locate this potential project??

Denise Morales
(832)691-6923
dmorales@fifthwardcric.org

Add your name & contact info below

Clear pathways for business models

Tennelle & Training for Trainers 2023 Group Project

Rachel Liaisons

GROUP { SMALL BUSINESS }: Project Ideas May 13, 2023

Training for Trainers 2023 Group Project GROUP { } : Interview Reflections June 10, 2023

-What are key questions to ask to hear community perspectives on your issue area?

-What are the implications for your project idea and how does this shift/clarify your plan?

Training for Trainers 2023 Group Project GROUP { } : Project Outline Ideas July 8, 2023

-What is a clear outline for a project that can support your community in your issue area?

-What is the outline of an agenda to further engage community in this area?

-Are there other groups, organizations, etc. doing similar work? Could you partner with them?

